Swine Production Meet At Town Aug. 26

All hog raisers young and old, 4-H Club members, members of Farm Bureau, Veterans of Agricultural classes and other producers of swine are invited to attend a meeting to be held at the Jefferson County Fair Grounds, Thursday night, August 26, at 8 p.m. H. G. Sellards, swine specialist of the University of Kentucky, will be present to discuss the use of color film on the best methods of producing pork. Mr. Sellards will also discuss practical and profitable breeding and swine management practices being used by leading Kentucky farmers, it is announced by County Agent S. W. Anderson.

"Many of your plans now to attend this meeting and take part in these discussions. It could be more difficult to make money with hogs next year. On the other hand, there are who use the best methods will be the most money," said Mr. Anderson.

Plans will also be discussed for the Fair, with Mr. Sellards and S. W. Anderson to be here at the Bourbon Stockyards in Louisville, September 1.

Shelbyville Editor Had Long Career Of Writing

A shock to a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, and particularly to members of his profession — the Fourth Estate — came with the sudden death of George Lee Willis, Sr., editor-author of Shelbyville, his home, and Ninth and Clay Streets, at 8:45 p.m. Monday in a lighted side room.

The deceased had spent 60 years in newspaper work and in other writing, was a regular attendant at the meetings of the Kentucky Press Association, as his health permitted. Until his retirement five years ago, he was an associate editor of The Shelby Sentinel, Shelbyville. He was a features writer, a columnist and a frank. He didn't mind words in anything he wanted to say and he was a good citizen of Kentucky and National politics. At one time he was editor and part owner of The Shelby Record. He began his professional career as a newspaper reporter on The Louisville Times in 1886. In 1890 he was in Frankfort as correspondent for the Courier Journal. Then, after five years he became editor of The Franklin Capital, a weekly paper, later went to Washington and, in addition to serving as secretary to Congressmen Jenkins, he independently wrote a weekly column of political and other gossip for Kentucky newspapers.

He was friendly and a writer with a sharp pen if occasion required. Mr. Willis was born on a farm near Simpsonville. He wrote a history of Shelby County and a history of Kentucky Constitutional Conventions. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ruth Stanton Willis, daughter of Maj. Henry C. Moore, a former laureate of Kentucky and three daughters: Mrs. J. Stephen Watkins, Lexington; Mrs. Charlotte Gildart, Shelbyville; and Mrs. Gertrude Moore, Louisville.

The funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 10:30 a.m., by the Rev. Wayne H. Bell. Interment was in the Frankfort Cemetery. *

To Discuss Middletown Zone Changes Tonight

A discussion of proposed zoning changes, which will be held at 8 p.m., August 20, in the auditorium at Middletown school.

The meeting will be held by the City County Planning and Zoning Commission, and according to T. J. Luckett, chairman, notices are being sent to property owners in areas to be affected by the changes.

On the recommendation of Robert S. Russell, director of planning for the commission, the plan will be that the large area now zoned commercial permitting more space for homes, and centralizing the scattered business section.

The proposals would result in 25 acres in commercial zones under the Russell plan, and should provide sufficient space for years. Most of the affected areas are located on Shelbyville Road.

No action will be taken by the commission until after the hearing. *

MAY HUNT DOVES SEEM SEVERE

The hunting season on doves in Kentucky will open on September 1 and continue through October 30, both dates inclusive, according to figures just received recently released by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. The bag limit was set at ten per day, the same as for last year, but with the same hunting limit. The daily shooting hours for doves were set from noon until sunset.

Evangelistic Services Announced For Bethel

The Evangelistic Service begins at the Bethel Methodist Church, three miles from Mt. Washington on the Shepherdsville Road, on Monday night, August 21, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. W. W. Shuttleworth, pastor of the Bethel Methodist Church, Louisville, will preach each evening of

Local Vet Installs Mobile Phone Service

Dr. W. W. Shuttleworth, Jefferson's new pastor, has installed a mobile telephone in his car in order that his clients may reach him in any emergency. He is said to be the first professional man in Jefferson County to take advantage of this progressive service.

Maybe he'll get a helicopter next!

Fern Creek Methodists Building Pastor's Home

The Methodist congregation at Fern Creek is raising the construction of a new residence on the lot adjacent to the church building. The basement has been put in and work is beginning on the superstructure.

The congregation is to have a family pastor, following the Methodist Annual Conference which meets at Columbia, Kentucky the first week in September. This church has, for a number of years, been without the pastor with the Methodist congregation at Jeffersontown.

REV. R. J. TARTER

the week with the closing night on Sunday, August 29, J. E. Farnum will lead in the song service and Miss Joy Fisher will be at the piano.

In announcing the meeting, the Rev. Marcus B. Matlick, pastor of the First Methodist Church, comes to us highly recommended as a Christian gentleman and a preacher of the Gospel Message. He is said to be the most popular and beloved of all the Methodist preachers in the area.

"Many people said the 1947 Kentucky State Fair was the best in history," said Matlick. "I think we will be able to attract especially those who live at a distance. Neighborhood churches and a number of the services will be appreciated. Those people who have had to leave the church and are not able to get away from it will be drawn apart from the Christians in our community are cordially invited to attend these meetings."

The pastor of the First Methodist urges the taking of cars on the way to the church and the bringing of those who have no way to come except to walk. There are faithful members who walk to the services, but should not have to walk at all.

County Fair Had Many Good Exhibits

With good attendance every day — Wednesday through Saturday — the Jefferson County Fair — its second annual — proved a good fair for both young and old. There was something for everybody, but particularly for the 4-H boys and girls, the Future Farmers.

The horse show was better than expected. Domestic science and home economics exhibits vied with other exhibits and the amusement attractions.

Fair officials hope for not too many more entries, but expect to be bigger and better every succeeding year.

One of them was heard to say: "Something was expected to happen to the Fair the highlight of the year, both from a pleasure and profit standpoint."

Approximately $50,000 in premiums and sponsored prizes are offered for the various competitive exhibits and events including exhibits by all State Fair employees, and a determined effort to make the fair bigger and better in every way," supporting Matlick are Governor Earle C. Clements, Chairman of the Fair Board, J. R. Bush, President, and all the staff members.

In addition to increased premiums, among many improvements to be noted in 1948 Kentucky Fair, according to Matlick, will be a midway operated exclusively by local Civic Clubs, with all profits from the fair going to the clubs.

More than 200 years old and a graduate of Jeffersontown High School. She was Jewel Sidebottom before her marriage to Leroy Moody, five months ago.

Besides her husband, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Sidebottom, two brothers, Joyce and Al, two brothers, Louis, J. R., Leonard, Donald and James Sidebottom.

Interment was in Hopewell Cemetery, August 18.

STOP THE MUSIC; PUT OUT THE FIRE

Developments during the past week at Washington and elsewhere, in the program of investigation of persons accused of being spies and the carrying on of other subversive activities toward the United States Government, seem to have brought the entire country to a more serious state of mind. Even that arm of the daily press which has been crying "politics" and trying to laugh it off as an effort to discredit the national administration, appears to have reached the point where, sensing the public attitude, it is beginning to realize that there is probably some fire beneath the smoke.

It is obvious, even to the casual observer, that there is grave danger in the situation which has too long been practically ignored by some leading Washington authorities, to consider any political angle. It should be dealt with by all public officials as a serious menace to the American way of life, and with regard only for the facts as they are, and the need of weeding out those fifth column forces that are seeking ruthlessly to destroy freedom.

Nero fiddled while Rome burned. The fires have, evidently, been started long since at Washington. No real American would want to be a Nero at a time like this.

CLEM DESERVES RETIREMENT HONORS

Five goodwill tokens of various kinds and descriptions were given to our old friend J. N. Clem on his retirement as manager of the Indiana Southern Bell Telephone Company at New Albany and Jeffersonville. Local papers used pictures of the banquet scenes and printed tributes paid to "Jap," as we know him on this side of the River, when the Company's bigwigs met to do him honor.

A hard worker, good natured and friendly ever since he started with the telephone company, at Campbellsburg, he is a good boy, a steady worker, a man of a number of promotions to a highly responsible post. Deserving of all the honor shown him, Clem won, not alone a responsible position for himself, but a warm place in the hearts of his associates and the Company's patrons as well.

Said the Company's Indianapolis manager of Mr. Clem, "He's been the Indiana Bell Telephone Company's ambassador of goodwill." When it comes to goodwill, Jim Clem knows how to create an atmosphere in which it thrives. He has many friends here at Jeffersontown, where he was at one time a member of the local area.

His wife shares the honors to which he has attained. She was Miss Clifton Hoke, member of one of Jeffersontown's leading families.

It seems to be only fair to admit that women are more sympathetic than men. For example, at a wedding the women most always cry. They have been through the same thing and feel sorry for the girl. The men, on the other hand remain dry eyed, notwithstanding the fact that they too have been through the same thing and know what's ahead of the young man. Their attitude appears to be, "Misery loves company." Or, as one fellow put it, "Well, he'll be all right."

If all the people in our town who keep asking, "Why doesn't this town do something?" would get together, agree upon one thing that could be done and then pitch in and do it we would have a much better town—but they won't. No, this conclusion is not born of pessimism, but of years of observation and experience.

A local man read an article in a magazine recently on "How to Sell Yourself." Said he, "I am not interested in selling myself, but would be interested in a plan whereby I might trade myself in for a younger model."

These are confusing times; most of us would rather be listed among those who know "What's What," than to be listed in "Who's Who."

It used to be, "You can't take it with you." But now it is different, "You can't keep it while you are here."

The Minister of Justice in Russia must not have any more to do than a Swiss admiral. — Lincoln Republican.

Our Weekly Advice. A fellow worries best when he sits down and gives his whole time to it. It is pretty hard for the mind to do much worrying that is actively engaged in getting things done.

Sparks and Sundries
By Samuel H. Stuart

The experienced, a local author, was recently reminiscing of the time when, in 1939, he sold pork chops at three pounds for a quarter—one has to pinch one's self to believe that it had been but a few years since he had sold like that! A lady a customer remarked that she could well remember when the price of delicacies were ten cents a pound, and when we said, "Look and look at them—we couldn't afford them even at that price."

Now, in these boom times, with a shopping list at six to eight multiples of the pre-war figure, buyer's strikes are becoming the newest fad—especially for those with deep-freighted lockers full of meat, bacon, ham, etc., to buy. The resistance to high food prices has been noticeable for a couple of years but this year it is taking on "the" proportions of resistance to the producer and retailer, "Sell cheaper or else!"

Obviously, the people who are so intent about getting low prices, do not realize the simple fundamental fact of economics that declining prices are the sure token of a business recession. They also ignore the fact that the food-producers of demand reduction in the price of the food-producers merchant of the time when, in 1939, he sold pork chops at three pounds for a quarter—one has to pinch one's self to believe that it had been but a few years since he had sold like that! The American Way
By Dr. Alfred P. Haake

WHO DOES THE WORK?

Socialism won control of England by abolishing the facts of economics in the minds of people. The people voted the socialistic party to establish their dream world and, now, the socialist leaders are unhappy because their dream world won't sell into reality. The economic facts which they abolished, just won't stay dead.

Basic to all those facts is the truth that the only way we can have more goods is to produce them. Of course, Simple Samuel was in the good old England, but, even then, Simple Samuel has to get them produced. A lot of work has to be done by someone, for more goods can be produced only by more work.

Who does the work?

Poor old Karl Marx blind led us to the truth, blind and perverted of truth, would tell you that labor, sweat and toil, working with their hands, legs and backs, does the work—baseball, football, which would have been nearly true back in the cave-men days when it was every man for himself and mighty little for anyone else. Body, that is, the picture today.

Of all the work in the production of goods, 85 per cent is done by animal muscle power and 15 per cent by human muscle power. The cause of man's harnessing animals and mechanical power to do his work for him is that his standard of living has risen so enormously since the time of the caveman. For the animal man, with his own muscles, has a productive power of only one-tenth of a horse power, but using machines and mechanical power, he has a productive power of 85 per cent.

That is why it is possible for so many more millions of people to live on this earth and for all of them to have so much more than the primitive caveman.

But the most fortunate people of them all live in the United States, where there are more motors than machine guns, tanks and planes, also on earth. Here the average worker can buy more than twice as much with an hour of work than can an average caveman buy in a lifetime.

There is another kind of work, which is even more important than the work in using the tools and machines that take the place of man, in doing the physical work.

to visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pound and family and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Louisville.

Mr. Fletcher Bryant had the misfortune to lose his work team, a horse and a mule. They were used in his business, it sure was a great loss for him. They were only sick a few days.

Revival closed Sunday night, August 15, with good results.

There were about five bibles and nine by immersion. Bro. Orell Overman is truly a good preacher, and a fluent reader. Bro. Jim Clegg has his talent as song leader and that helped the singing. The Broads brothers helped willingly too, with whatever task they found to do.

Mr. Ed Stallard is visiting in Kansas at this time. Think he expects to do some fishing while there. He is a native of the fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barney of Underwood, Ind., also Mr. and Mrs. John Rouch of Scottsburg and their daughter, Nettie, were guests of relatives Sunday afternoon. Mr. Barney had not been here since he was a young man. He was a half-brother of Anna Curry. The rest of the folks had never been over here.

Mr. George Bland is visiting in Midway with his daughter, Mrs. K. A. Breden and Mr. Breden.

HOMEMAKER CLUBS

AUBURNDALE

The Auburndale Homemakers Club held its annual picnic trip for the members on August 4.

The members, families and friends left for the Cincinnati Zoo at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning.

When they arrived, all spent their lunches together.

With plenty of good food and hot coffee, brought back the picnic trip, despite the heat.

The exhibits were seen.

Mr. Miller suggested that the Botanical Gardens should also be seen, which certainly was very interesting and beautiful.

The members as a surprise to all, as this was an unexpected suggestion from Mr. Miller.

For return home, all stopped at Mr. Weller's, some buying souvenirs, also refreshments. All members and friends enjoyed the trip, with singing and laughter to and from the bus.

Mr. Miller, the driver of the bus, again deserves thanks, for the capable and excellent care in driving of the bus.

Credit should also be given to the president of the club, Mrs. E. L. Losch, who took complete charge of the entire trip. — Mrs. J. Dolan

Speed up Baling with the OLIVER "88"
and Automatic-Hydraulic Threader

Here's a great time-saving combination!

The remarkable direct drive power take-off of the big new 3-4 plow Oliver "88" tractor is one of the greatest boons to baling. To "ease" the baler's load or clear the machine, just step on the clutch of your "88"—the Oliver power take-off keeps on running! Let out the clutch and you're on your way again. No time wasted by declutching, gear shifting, and retutching!

Come in and check the high-tonnage features of the Oliver. Ann Arbor Automatic-Hydraulic Threader. Pickup Bales, too. Next, firm, sliced bales that come apart in good-sized sections are produced.

You can get almost any combination of ground speed and drawbar pull you want. With its 6-forward-speed transmission, 6-cylinder engine and Fluid Miser governor, you can fit the tractor to the load—and use only the fuel that's needed to do the work.

There are many other valuable, money-saving farm features, plus a choice of three great engines for the fuel you prefer, including a farm-engineered diesel that will be available later...interchangeable cast and stamped steel wheels and basic interchangeability of mounted tools with other Row Crop models.

BE MARKET WISE

By Miriam Kelley

Vegetables plentiful. Whether you buy your fresh vegetables or bring them in fresh from your own garden, you may have almost anything you want this week. There is a good abundance of a large variety of excellent vegetables available in the stores and gardens—green beans, both pole beans and bush beans, and the price is right. The same is true of corn, squash, potatoes, tomatoes, egg plant, onions, greens.

Enjoy Vegetable Dinners while meat is high. Make an interesting cut of meat in combination with vegetables. To help you use these vegetables, how about trying a new recipe for "Baked Beans" as suggested by the University of Kentucky foods specialists.

The recipe—I mixed sized eggplant, 1 1/2 cups buttered bread crumbs, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup onions, 1/2 cup chopped parsley; 1 teaspoon salt. Pare eggplant, cut in small pieces. Place eggplant in a small amount of boiling salted water until tender. Drain, add one cup of crumb, egg yolks, and seasoning. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into eggplant mixture. Pour into buttered baking dish, cover with remaining crumbs, bake in moderate oven (325 degrees F.) until brown, and mix it firm.

Baked Tomatoes—to use leftover meat and make use of plentiful tomatoes use this recipe: 1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs, 1 cup chopped cooked meat, 2 1/2 cup dry bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons chopped onions, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup flour, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 cup butter. Cut thin slices from the stem end of unpeeled tomatoes; remove seed and some of the pulp. Mix pulp with the meat, salt, sugar, flour, and bread crumbs and fill the tomato shells. Mix remainder of bread crumbs with the butter, sprinkle over top of tomatoes. Cover with a thin layer of buttered baking dish, cover with one half the cabbage and pour one cup of tomatoes over them. Sprinkle meat, bread, and onions and stir rapidly so all crumbs will be covered with the butter. Sprinkle buttered crumbs over mixture and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) until crumbs are browned.

Butter Cabbages have you tried adding just a drop or two of oil of peppermint or a few chopped mint leaves before you boil them? The flavor is pleasant and different, helps you make better use of plentiful carrots.

Stay with Inexpensive Meats! All meat is high, but front quarter cuts represent less expensive items for a variety of uses. These include chuck, shoulder, brisket, short ribs, fresh and frozen prime rib calfs. Smoked meat products are all relatively less expensive for there is less waste and the meat may be made to extend far in a feeding preparation. Consider fish as an excellent, but right now, fish is good—it's good for you, too.

Ag. College To Have State Fair Exhibits

The State Fair exhibits of the College of Agriculture and Home Econ. mics, University of Kentucky, will be housed in the Grandstand building, where exhibits have been made for a long number of years. Robert H. Fox of the college will be in charge.

A farm engineering exhibit will include the use of hay driers, and making hay into silage, as methods of producing more and better feeds.

Another part of the college's exhibit will show proper use of 2,4-D control weeds and increase crop yields.

One booth will picture the great loss of cattle disease caused to the tobacco crop.

How clean eggs increase poultry profits will be featured in a combined exhibit of the poultry and marketing sections of the college.

In the home economics exhibit, rooms furnished in good taste and in poor taste will be contrasted.

The 4-H club department will have its usual display of canned fruits, vegetables and meats, baked foods, clothing and room furnishings.

Better Food for Latin America

Nutrition experts are devising ways of improving the diets of Latin American undernourished peoples of the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO). Above a worker brings in peanuts harvested on an agricultural experimental station which is exploring the possibilities of growing different foods for Latin America.

VOLUNTEER FIREFIGHTERS
PROPOSE RATE REDUCTION

tended later to the balance of Jefferson County.

"In this area we have now in operation six community fire departments, which could be included in a plan of cooperation which would give an adequate fire protection to the entire boundary as specified.

"No. 1 Camp Taylor, which you have approved, eight trucks for a restricted area, they now operate two fire trucks. No. 2 Buechel, operating two fire trucks, now has a seventh class rating, a limited area. No. 3 Jeffersonville now has seventh class rating and maintains one fire truck. No. 4 Fern Creek, now has a ninth class rating for limited area and operates one fire truck. All of these departments have been recently in operation and approved by you. No. 5 Olmos is in the process of acquiring and has contracted for an additional approved fire engine, which will give them two fire trucks and we believe will have a rate reduction for a limited area to sixth class. No. 6 Highview is now in the process of developing a plan of cooperation which you have approved. They are following a program as outlined by you, although they have not progressed as far as the Okolona Department.

"These departments have been cooperating for fire protection for this entire area for more than two years and have developed a plan of cooperation modeled after the one now in operation in Kenton and Campbell Counties. (You have given blank rate reductions to the area protected by the Community Volunteer Fire Departments in that area.) In addition to these efficient approved Community Departments, Jefferson County, Fiscal Court, maintains a County Fire Department with one truck on Newbury Road near Bassett Manor Lane and although you have considered that this department meets with your standards and have refused to give it any recognition for rate reduction, we believe that, and although it is located at a great distance from any built up community, we believe that our County Department could not much longer refuse to cooperate in our program and we believe that it would be of some value in backing up the community departments.

"The community departments above named have been giving fire protection not only to their immediate areas, where you have granted a rate reduction, but through the back up system now in operation these departments have been affording fire protection to the entire area as outlined in this program. Although they have saved a great deal of insured property, the areas outside of the boundaries of the local community, have been given blank class insurance rates as if they had no fire protection at all.

"View of the program and plan above outlined, we believe that the entire area as above set out is entitled to a blanket insurance rate reduction to ninth class, and in view of the efficient operation of these departments during the past two years we believe that the areas immediately adjacent to these various departments are entitled to additional rate reductions. The Camp Taylor District - sixth class, Buechel District - sixth class, Jeffersonville - sixth class, Okolona District - sixth class, Fern Creek District - seventh class, and District 3 - seventh class. We believe that this program now in operation in this area meets with your approval and specifies upon you for the rate reduction set out and we feel sure that upon your inspection and examination of this plan you will grant these reductions at once."

"Thank you for your cooperation in this matter, we are. Yours very truly,

Volunteer Firefighters,
Inc.
